About Houston Solutions

Since our foundation in 2010, Houston Solutions has been all about relationships. We are a bespoke strategic advisory firm for leaders.

Leaders today, whether in the business world, third sector, local government, digital sector, the arts or entertainment industry, need to navigate an increasingly complex and ever-changing global environment.

From the design and execution of business development opportunities to influencing, connecting and engaging at the most senior levels – Houston Solutions is a trusted advisor to leaders across UK, Ireland and the US. Our team has experience in international business, advising senior leaders globally and senior diplomatic experience.

We are your 'corporate diplomatic service' - strategic advice, trusted network (local & international), design of ambitious strategy, delivering bespoke campaigns and building relationships, advocacy & business development opportunities.

Our mission is to empower great leaders and build relationships between UK, Ireland, EU, US and beyond.
